“Now that's what I call Shattered
Dasein.”

"You know why I'm so great? If I wrote an essay called 'Why I ~~was~~ ^{am} so Great' the argument would be this: cause at least I'm not boring as hell like other people. And if I ever was, you know what I'd do? I'd shoot myself in the face."

"Whatever, whatever; I don't care, I'm great."

"I like to look good. I like to be sexy, and have sex with sexy people. I'm ugly, but I did what I could."

A PISSED OFF POEM

The other night I was in deepest thought
Pondering mightily the gravest of issues
-- and I mean serious stuff -
When in through my open window flew a big
Disheveled moth all drunk and disorderly
At first just annoying his fluttering
Became erratic and grew progressively chaotic
His antics derailed my train of thought
And totally wrecked my concentration
I got up to confront him about all of this
But he staggered to the window
And stumbled back into the night
And it really pissed me off to watch him
Make his getaway before I had the chance
To straiten him out properly
Standing in a rage amid all the carnage
I decided to sift through the fragments and
Assemble a poem

Tropic of Cockricorn

Synopsis: Dr. Goodglove welcomes Mr. Pucker and Mr. Bucket to his office for a most unusual physical. When the exams are all over, assholes have been primed, poked and stretched to unbelievable limits with what might be instruments recovered from the Spanish Inquisition. The highlight is arguably Jeff and the fucking machine. Some fleeting erections but no orgasms. This is all about power, folks.

Comments: Masters and slaves at work and play. Depending on your take, this is either downright disgusting or pure pleasure. Certainly the guys on the receiving end of all those fingers, probes, fists, dildos and more seem to be enjoying themselves. It's all done safely, but is something that maybe shouldn't be attempted at home without the help of professionals—or an open line to 911.

I'M DRESSING LIKE A MAN TO PROTEST THE COMPANY'S DRESS CODE.

Doors have no locks and windows no bars for thieves and robbers never enter there.

Do you want to go there? Then why not get ready now? It isn't difficult. All you have to do is open your heart to Jesus Christ, the Lord of the country, and ask Him to come in. Then, when the journey of life is ended, you too will go to this wonderful country and dwell there forevermore. Will you do it? Do it —NOW? "Jesus saith unto him, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me."

John 14:6

A CERTAIN PHILOSOPHER used to hang about wherever children were at play. And whenever he saw a boy with a top, he would lie in wait. As soon as the top began to spin the philosopher went in pursuit and tried to catch it. He was not perturbed when the children noisily protested and tried to keep him away from their toy; so long as he could catch the top while it was still spinning, he was happy, but only for a moment; then he threw it to the ground and walked away. For he believed that the understanding of any detail, that of a spinning top, for instance, was sufficient for the understanding of all things. For this reason he did not busy himself with great problems, it seemed to him uneconomical. Once the smallest detail was understood, then everything was understood, which was why he busied himself only with the spinning top. And whenever preparations were being made for the spinning of the top, he hoped that this time it would succeed: as soon as the top began to spin and he was running breathlessly after it, the hope would turn to certainty, but when he held the silly piece of wood in his hand, he felt nauseated. The screaming of the children, which hitherto he had not heard and which now suddenly pierced his ears, chased him away, and he tottered like a top under a clumsy whip.

God Almighty is full of love and kindness to His creation. All blessings and goodness in this world and the next are clear proofs of His Mercy. Indeed, Islam teaches that God is more merciful toward us than our own mothers. How can it be otherwise, when some of God's names and attributes include:

- The Acceptor of Repentance;
- The Compassionate;
- The Loving;
- The Forbearing One;
- The Most Gracious;
- The Most Merciful;
- The Source of Goodness;
- The Most Generous;
- The Bestower

Is There Any Hope for the Dead?

WHY THE QUESTION ARISES: We want to live, and we want to enjoy life with those we love. It is only natural that we yearn to see our dead loved ones again.

WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES: Most people who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs will . . . come out." (John 5:28, 29) In harmony with God's original purpose, those resurrected as humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43) This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life for obedient humans. The Bible says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." —Psalm 37:29.

A COLORING BOOK FOR LAWYERS

THIS IS ME. I am a lawyer. Lawyers are important.
They go to important offices and do important things.
Color my underpants important.

THIS IS MY TRAIN. It takes me to my office every day. You meet lots of interesting people on the train. Color them all gray.

THIS IS MY ELEVATOR. It takes me way up high. People who are not lawyers stand right next to me in the elevator. They are all right, but I would not want my daughter to marry one of them.

THIS IS MY DESK. It is mahogany. Important people have mahogany desks.
My walls are mahogany, too. I wish I were mahogany.

THIS IS MY TELEPHONE. It has five buttons.
Count them. One, two, three, four, five. Five buttons.
How many buttons does your phone have? Mine has five.

THIS IS THE SENIOR PARTNER. He hates me. He calls me bad names, but he gives me lots of raises. My wife calls him "papa".

THIS IS MY WIFE.

THIS IS MY SECRETARY. I hate her. She is mean.
I used to have a soft, round lady.

THIS IS A CLIENT. He smells bad. He has money to spend. I like him.

THIS IS MY FIRM'S LUNCHROOM. Sometimes I walk through it and smile at the staff. "Hello, staff," my smile says, "I am one of you." I never eat there.

THIS IS MY PILL. It is round. It is pink. It makes me not care.

Watch me take my round, pink pill

... and not care.

→ Work = $T - L^*$

→ Indifference curve $U(C, L)$

→ U_0 to U_1 is an increase in happiness

→ Slope of $U = -MRS = \frac{\Delta C}{\Delta L}$

→ Rate at which an individual is ready to give up consumption, in exchange, while maintaining the same utility

→ At B $MRS < 1$, one would rather work more than q

$$dU(L, C) = \frac{\partial U}{\partial L} dL + \frac{\partial U}{\partial C} dC$$

$$\frac{\partial U}{\partial L} dL = - \frac{\partial U}{\partial C} dC \Rightarrow \frac{\partial U}{\partial L} = - \frac{\partial U}{\partial C} \frac{dC}{dL}$$

→ What?

→ Comparing the MRS of 2 consumers

→ U^2 is

- Leisure as a normal good
 - ↳ Work less, consume more
- Leisure as an inferior good
 - ↳ Work more, consume less
- See graph online
- Leisure is rarely an inferior good
- An effect on an increase in wage
 - ↳ Assume leisure is a normal good
 - ↳ 2 effects in opposite directions
 - ↳ 1) Income effect - the individual has more income
 - ↳ Reduces the amount of work
 - ↳ 2) Substitution effect - the opportunity cost of leisure is higher
 - ↳ Work more

→ For a participant the increase drastically
→ No substitution effect
→ Increase in wage for
→ Increases in wage reduce participation worked

I wish it could die,

'cause so many people
do it, it must be fun.
